

To whom it may concern:

I am in favor of having a video phone for Deaf people. This provides more access to Deaf individuals, but by having different providers for D-link, we are forced to use IP numbers rather than to use phone numbers. This does not provide us with equal access to call other people with different providers using their phone number.
Elmer & Margie Ewan